

We use the Sun Nuclear model 1027 Professional Radon Monitor. It records the hourly data and has tamper-monitoring features to document any touching, bumping or power interruptions.

In accordance with the Illinois State law, each monitor is calibrated annually, cross-checked against a recently calibrated monitor at six months, and every 10th test has two monitors side-by-side to ensure that the results provided are accurate and reliable.